REMARKS.

This work has been compiled for the purpose of meeting a want generally felt throughout the country, and to show in a concise form the patronage of the United States Government.

It is adapted to every part of the Union, and will be a valuable source of information in every State. The aim of the compiler has been to give a correct list of the civil offices, furnished from the latest and most reliable sources.

Some few of the least important are omitted, including Post Offices where the compensation is less than $500 per annum. It will therefore be understood when the name of a Post Office is omitted, that the compensation is less than that sum.

The annual salaries of the officers of Army and Navy are not embraced in this compilation, as change of administration does not affect this branch of the public service.

The Mails are carried by special contract with the Post Office Department, and Mail Messengers are often employed for special and temporary service.

The Customs Department is named by districts, and frequently each district embraces several different places within its limits.

Under the Quartermaster General of the War Department there are numerous employees, as Clerks, Forage Masters, Wagon Masters, Agents, Superintendents and Masters of Transportation, who are paid monthly salaries ranging from $50 to $200, and who are transferred from place to place as the service may require.

Under the Subsistence Department there are employed Clerks, Storekeepers, Laborers and other employees, at salaries from $25 to $150 per month.

At the National Armory, Springfield, Mass., a large number of Inspectors, Mechanics, Watchmen and Laborers are employed at rates from $1.50 to $4.75 per day, and many on piece-work, according to the public demands.

Also at the Rock Island Arsenal, Illinois; Frankford Arsenal Philadelphia; Allegheny Arsenal, Pittsburgh; Augusta Arsenal, Augusta, Ga.; Benicia Arsenal, Benicia, Cal.; Fort Monroe Arsenal, Old Point Comfort, Va.; Fort Union Arsenal, New Mexico; New York Arsenal, New York City; St. Louis Arsenal, Jefferson Barracks, Mo.; San Antonio Arsenal, Texas; Washington, D. C., Arsenal; Watervliet Arsenal, West Troy, N. Y.; Watertown Arsenal, Watertown, Mass.; Clerks, Mechanics, Watchmen and Laborers are employed as the necessities of the public service require.

IF INFORMATION IS DESIRED RELATIVE TO THE COMPENSATION OF ANY PUBLIC OFFICE NOT STATED HEREIN, THE SAME MAY BE OBTAINED ON APPLICATION TO THE PUBLISHERS OF THIS WORK.

It is believed that this work will meet the wishes of a large number of citizens of the United States who may be desirous of a knowledge of the patronage of the Government. It is therefore submitted to the public as a book of INFORMATION and REFERENCE.

The compensation of Pension Agents is regulated by the amount of their disbursements. In addition to their salary, they receive a fee of twenty-five cents on each voucher paid. The figures given show the salary and fees at each agency for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1875, as shown by a report of the Commissioner of Pensions in response to an inquiry of Congress. From this amount the agent paid his clerk hire, office expenses and postage on vouchers.
